FBLA-PBL PLEDGE

I solemnly promise to support the mission of Future Business Leaders of America, abide by its Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct, and develop the qualities necessary to become a community-minded business leader.

FBLA-PBL CREED

I believe education is the right of every person.

I believe the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.

I believe every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.

I believe every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.

I believe every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation.

I believe every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.

I believe I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.

About Our Guest Speaker

We are excited to bring Tyler Tarver this year to our Fall Leadership Conference. Tyler Tarver is a nationally recognized educator, speaker, and technology enthusiast who is passionate about inspiring students and educators to embrace creativity, leadership, and innovation. Known for his high-energy presentations and engaging personality, Tyler brings humor and real-world experiences to everything he does.

Tyler has become a popular speaker at schools and educational conferences across the country, encouraging students to think differently, take risks, and discover their potential. His message reminds students that success is not just about what you know—it's about how you use your skills, attitude, and opportunities to make a difference.

Tyler is excited to share his energy, experience, and encouragement with the District V Middle School FBLA members as they learn, connect, and grow as future leaders.
